PRIORITY

Department Circular telegram 807

SAG has no diplomatic relations with Cuba. Two countries associated in group non-aligned states, which met in Belgrade in September 1961, and King Saud received lengthy telegram from President Dorticos in January 1962 (Embassy despatch 195). It is not known whether King ever replied to message. Embassy does not believe it wise encourage correspondence between SAG and Castro Government and will not make approach requested unless further instructions received.
